

What you should know

Even if you're no longer an employee, we'll continue to be at your service! The tips below will help you.

Can we reach you digitally?

We can keep you posted much faster if we can keep reaching you digitally.

- Please check your email address and give us your correct (or new) email address. To do this, go to ing.cdcpensioen.nl and log in to the secure environment 'My Pension'. Log in using your DigiD, so we know for sure it's really you. That's why you can only report your email address via 'My Pension'.
- If you've already reported your email address via 'My Pension' and it is still correct, you don't need to take action because we'll be able to reach you digitally.

If you'd prefer to receive all information from the pension fund via regular post, then please cancel our digital communications. To do this, use your DigiD to log in once to your secure environment 'My Pension' via the website. Or send a letter to:

ING CDC Pensioenfondsen
Postbus 4471
6401 CZ Heerlen

If you have already notified us that you prefer receiving all information from the pension fund via regular post, you don't need to take action. If you want to change your preferences in the future, go to 'My Pension'.

Relocating in or to a foreign country

Please report your new address to us. You can do this digitally. Go to ing.cdcpensioen.nl and log in to your secure environment 'My Pension' using your DigiD. If you're living abroad, please keep us informed of all relevant changes in your situation, such as marriage, divorce and death.

Are you moving in with your partner? Then please report your partner to us. At ing.cdcpensioen.nl you will find a list of conditions and what you need to report to us.

Relocating in the Netherlands?

You don't need to report anything to us if you relocate in the Netherlands. You will need to report your new address to your municipality, after which they will report that to us automatically. Your municipality will also report to us if you get married, divorced or pass away.

Check your pension online regularly
